Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously disclosed, on September 13, 2022, Sio Gene Therapies, Inc. (the “Company”) was granted an additional 180-day grace period, or until March 13, 2023, in addition to the Company’s initial 180-day grace period, to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5450(a)(1) (the “Minimum Bid Price Requirement”).

The Company also previously disclosed its intent to proceed with a dissolution of the Company in accordance with a plan of complete liquidation and dissolution (the “Dissolution”), approved by the Company’s board of directors in December 2022 and pending approval by the Company’s stockholders pursuant to the definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and first mailed to the Company’s stockholders on or about February 21, 2023.

On March 14, 2023, the Company received written notice (the “Delisting Notice”) from Nasdaq notifying the Company that, as a result of its failure to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement, Nasdaq has determined that the Company’s common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq Capital Market. In light of the Company’s planned Dissolution, the Company will not appeal this determination.

The Company expects, based on the Delisting Notice, that trading of the Company’s common stock will be suspended at the opening of business on March 23, 2023, and a Form 25-NSE will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which will remove the Company’s common stock from listing and registration on Nasdaq.
